

Disability rights expert Zara Todd appointed to lead new panel shaping Government's health and disability policy

Equity and inclusion consultant Zara Todd has been appointed as Chair of the Government's new Independent Disability Advisory Panel, taking a guiding role in its development and focus.