

Dmitry Medvedev speaks by phone with Prime Minister of Turkey Binali Yildirim

During the conversation, Dmitry Medvedev expressed gratitude to the Turkish side for their prompt and effective cooperation during the evacuation of the crew of the Liman, a Russian naval ship.

The prime ministers also exchanged views on current issues of Russian-Turkish trade and economic cooperation, and discussed the schedule of forthcoming bilateral contacts at various levels.