

Doors opened for school leavers to become train drivers

Lowering the train driver age from 20 to 18 will give younger people the chance to build rewarding careers in the UK railway industry.