

Dorset chalk stream benefits from Environment Agency funding

The Environment Agency has funded a successful project to improve water quality and fish habitat in the Devils Brook, an important chalk stream in Dorset.