

Drought permit granted to help Ardingly Reservoir

The Environment Agency has given a drought permit to South East Water to help secure the public water supply at Ardingly Reservoir.