

Duke of Edinburgh visits RAF Northolt

His Royal

Highness Prince Phillip, The Duke of Edinburgh made an official visit to RAF

Northolt on Friday 17 March.

The Duke

made the visit in his capacity of Honorary Air Commodore for the unit, which is home to 33 units from across Defence and wider Government.

As part of the visit programme The Duke received an update on operations on the unit and met 120 personnel from all three Armed Services and Civil Servants.

Corporal Loz Prior, who works on the unit as a Physical Training Instructor was part of the group that met The Duke, he said: 'I felt immensely proud to be part of the occasion. A big part of my role is to ensure that our people are fit to do their job, and His Royal Highness was very interested in the various ways we manage to achieve that. It was a real honour to meet and speak with a member of the Royal family.'

The Duke

last visited RAF Northolt in March 2015, when he awarded a new standard to 32

(The Royal) Squadron as part of the unit's centenary celebrations.
