

Durham soldier of World War One laid to rest 109 years after death

Sergeant Richard Rounslay of 12th Battalion The Durham Light Infantry was laid to rest yesterday (17 September 2025) with two unknown comrades in France, nearly 109 years after his death in the First World War.