

Early years provision: expanding through a governor-led model

How two primary schools, each with a supportive governing body and local authority, used the School-based Nursery Capital Grant to create early years places.