

East Midlands urged to check flood risk despite drought condition

As part of Flood Action Week, the East Midlands is urged to plan ahead this autumn to reduce the impact flooding may have on their homes and businesses.