

Education Bureau alerts public to website of organisation falsely claiming to have support from “Hong Kong Education Bureau”

The Education Bureau (EDB) today (February 21) called on the public to stay vigilant against an organisation calling itself "Kyiv State University of Economics and Business (Hong Kong Campus)". Its website falsely claims to have the support from the "Hong Kong Education Bureau" and contains a hyperlink to the EDB website.

The EDB solemnly clarifies that it has no connection with the organisation in question. The EDB has reported the matter to the Police.
