

Emergency support instrument update

The UK has secured £31 million in funding through the European Union's mobility package to assist the UK's coronavirus response.