

Employment Rights Bill to increase bereavement leave for families who face pregnancy loss

Government announces a new amendment to the Employment Rights Bill which will expand rights to bereavement leave to those who experience pregnancy loss