

End to surprise phone and broadband bill hikes to help with cost of living

Major telecoms providers sign new charter to end unexpected mid-contract price rises and make social tariffs easier to access, helping millions manage living costs.