

Endangered species seized in wildlife smuggling crackdown

Border Force seizes over 250 endangered species and illegal wildlife products as part of an intensive international operation to target criminal networks.