

English National Opera's singing programme for people recovering from Covid-19 rolls out nationally

The ENO Breathe programme for Covid-19 patients is developed in collaboration with Imperial College Healthcare and will be rolled out nationally.