

Environment Agency announces updated plans for York flood scheme

The Environment Agency says that after re-assessing a flood scheme in York a section of road will need to be closed, but for six months less than planned.