

Environment Agency issue 17 drought permits to Yorkshire Water

The additional drought permits have been issued to Yorkshire Water to allow them to conserve water in reservoirs to secure public drinking water supplies.