

Environment Agency issues drought permits to Yorkshire Water

The Environment Agency has issued drought permits that will allow Yorkshire Water to conserve water in 12 reservoirs and secure public drinking water supplies.