

Environment Agency progressing plans to protect Worcestershire village from flooding

£1.8 million scheme will protect homes and business in historical village of Severn Stoke.