

Environment Agency secures £2.35m for environmental improvements

The Environment Agency has secured £2.35 million from Yorkshire Water for environmental improvements following a series of pollution incidents.