

Guidance: Extended producer responsibility for packaging: who is affected and what to do

How UK organisations that supply or import packaging should comply with extended producer responsibility (EPR) for packaging.

Press release: Time to invest in our water security

As England enters the autumn, the National Drought Group met to reiterate the importance of all sectors continuing to plan and invest for future droughts.

News story: Bird flu (avian influenza): latest situation in England

Find out about the latest bird flu situation in England and guidance for bird keepers and the public.

Guidance: Swine vesicular disease: how to spot and report it

The signs of swine vesicular disease, what to do if you suspect it in your animals and measures to prevent its spread.

Guidance: Foot and mouth disease: how to spot and report it

The signs of foot and mouth disease, what to do if you suspect it in your animals and measures to prevent its spread.