

Policy paper: Integrated pollution prevention and control: developing and setting of Best Available Techniques (BAT) provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together on the regulation, control and prevention of pollution from industry.

Policy paper: Fertilisers: provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together in policy areas affecting fertilisers.

Policy paper: Animal health and welfare: provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together in animal health and welfare policy areas.

Policy paper: Plant health: provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together on plant health policy.

Policy paper: Organics: provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together in policy areas covering organic production and certification.