

Press release: Environment Agency staff working 24/7 to protect people as severe flood risk continues

Environment Agency teams continue to work around the clock to protect people and properties from severe flooding, with further floods expected across parts of the country today and possibly into the weekend.

Press release: Environment Agency staff continue 24/7 operational flooding response to protect people and property

Environment Agency teams continue to work around the clock to protect people and properties from severe flooding, with further floods expected across parts of the country today and possibly into the weekend.

National Statistics: Food statistics pocketbook

Publication giving an overview of statistics about food.

FOI release: Domestic flights

Domestic flights.

News story: Government's ambition to enhance the environment takes crucial step forward

Transformative Environment Bill moves a step closer with Second Reading.