

Water company hit with combined fines of over £1.2m for pollution incidents in East England

Anglian Water fined in two separate court cases this week after causing four pollution incidents in watercourses as a result of blockages and broken infrastructure

National Drought Group forecasts drought may remain beyond spring 2023

Projections suggest average rainfall over winter will not be enough to prevent drought conditions in some areas next year

Seagrass and saltmarsh habitat development

New maps revealing the extent of seagrass and saltmarsh habitats go live

Environment Agency 'counts' on refurbishment

Environment Agency work to refurbish a vital fish counter on the River Tyne in Northumberland starts on Monday 17 October.

New fish pass unlocks Exmoor National Park

A new fish pass on the River Exe, at Bridgetown Weir near Dulverton, Somerset, will help fish reach more than 30 kilometres of Exmoor rivers.