

Tamworth potato processor fined £6,500 for pollution incident

The Environment Agency has successfully prosecuted Edima Holdings Ltd, a Tamworth potato processing company, for causing a pollution which killed over 450 fish.

Record £90m fine for Southern Water following EA prosecution

Southern Water sentenced to pay record £90 million in fines for widespread pollution after pleading guilty to 6,971 unpermitted sewage discharges.

North East man sentenced for waste offences

Stephen Fenwick has been handed a suspended prison sentence following an Environment Agency investigation.

Stowey Quarry saga ends with final convictions

A scrap metal exporter and a middle-man broker have been told to pay over £800,000 for taking advantage of a quarry that became an illegal tipping site.

Clampdown on illegal fishing in Derbyshire

166 spot checks were carried out while, in addition, five people were also reported for lighting a large barbecue.