

North East households urged not to become 'accidental' waste criminals this Christmas

Residents and social media users in the North East that use unregistered waste carriers could find themselves 'accidental criminals', warns the Environment Agency.

---

Public consultation begins on £3.3 million plans to reduce flood risk to 221 properties in Penketh and Whittle Brooks

The Environment Agency is encouraging residents to share their views on proposals for a £3.3m flood risk management scheme in Penketh and Whittle Brooks in Warrington.

---

Convicted waste crime offender ordered to pay £2.1 million

A convicted waste crime offender has been ordered to pay £2,101,708 following a confiscation case brought by the Environment Agency.

---

Somerset rivers stocked with fish in run-up to Christmas

Thousands of fish have found new homes just in time for Christmas thanks to the Environment Agency's annual restocking of Somerset's rivers.

---

New £5 million project to save woodlands

Natural England's LIFE in the Ravines project is launched today with £5 million of funding.