

Environment Agency continues crucial work to protect fisheries amidst summer like no other

This summer was an unprecedented time for EA officers protecting rivers and fisheries across England amidst extreme weather and continuous hot temperatures.

Permit variation granted for South London waste facility

Revised permit allows for increase in energy generation.

Permit variation granted for South London waste facility

Revised permit allows for increase in energy generation.

Court issues Restriction Order over land near Norfolk village

A Restriction Order has been issued to prohibit access to and the bringing in of waste into a set area of land in Clenchwarton.

North East 'Ark' sites are safe haven for endangered crayfish

The Environment Agency and Northumberland Rivers Trust have relocated hundreds of native crayfish to six refuge sites in North Northumberland.