

A Christmas stocking gives North East fish numbers a boost

The Environment Agency has released thousands of fish bred at its national fish farm into North East rivers and stillwaters

Multi-agency days of action target Crawley and Reigate waste sites

Investigations to follow surprise early morning visits.

Plans for Tenbury Wells flood scheme unveiled in virtual event

A virtual engagement event launched this week for the Tenbury Wells community to find out about the proposed flood risk management scheme for their town.

Company fined for illegally depositing waste in Teesside

A Teesside-based company has been fined £36,000 for illegally depositing waste following a successful Environment Agency prosecution.

River Aire flood defences are winter ready as work continues on permanent repairs

Permanent repairs to flood embankments on the lower River Aire are underway after they were damaged during storms last winter.