

Nottingham steel work company's negligence leads to charity donation

After Environment Agency action, Fabriweld Tubular Steel Products has paid £15,300 to Notts Wildlife Trust for failing to meet packaging recycling obligations.

Environment Agency advises on restarting private sewage treatment plants

Guidance is being issued to industry bodies about restarting sewage treatment plants.

Work to start on second phase of £40m flood scheme in Bury.

Phase 2 of a multi-million pound scheme to reduce flood risk to more than 800 homes and businesses across Radcliffe and Redvales will get underway in the coming weeks.

Work starts again to improve flood defences in Lower Bootham

Work is back on track to improve flood protection in a section of the York Flood Alleviation Scheme

Flood asset repairs continue during the coronavirus pandemic

Throughout the pandemic, the Environment Agency has continued to repair flood defences damaged in the February floods, prioritising those communities most at risk of flooding.