

Coronavirus: Environment Agency update

The Environment Agency's priority is to protect people and the environment, and to support those we regulate during the coronavirus pandemic.

Fish start to spawn again after successful restoration work

A year-long project to reinvigorate a Suffolk river and increase the fish population has proven to be a success six months after completion.

40-metre illegal fishing net seized at Skinningrove

Joint operation protects the local fishing industry

First boats set to pass through the new Boston Barrier

Boats can now navigate through the barrier and construction continues in line with the government's coronavirus guidance

Green projects given support to attract private sector investment

New investment approach announced to involve private sector in environmental projects, helping to tackle climate change and restore nature.