

Trio convicted for fly-tipping waste in Havant

Household and commercial waste dumped in field.

Sunderland man charged over £12,000 for running illegal waste operation

Defendant stored waste inappropriately and failed to keep required documentation

The Duchess of Northumberland visits Mitford Dam

The Duchess of Northumberland, in her role as Lord-Lieutenant of Northumberland, was given a guided tour of a vital flood alleviation scheme in the heart of Morpeth.

Negligent farmer fined for fouling SSSI

A Milton Keynes farmer who repeatedly polluted a stream in a Northamptonshire Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) has been ordered to pay £8,760.

Environment Agency completes third phase of vital Ouse Washes work

The third year of work to raise the banks of the Ouse Washes Flood Storage Reservoir has been completed by the Environment Agency.