

£1 million boost for UK smart waste tracking

Two UK companies awarded share of the government's £20 million GovTech Catalyst fund.

Burton flood defence project on target

Work has started at Blackpool Street and at Paget High School, with work due to start at the library and leisure centre in coming weeks

National Drought Group – EA Chief Executive statement

The NDG met on Tuesday 21 October, chaired by Sir James Bevan, Chief Executive of the Environment Agency.

Angler ordered to pay more than £1,200 after obstructing water bailiff

A Milton Keynes angler who fished illegally has landed an unexpected whopper – a financial penalty totalling £1,234.

Work paused on the Carlisle flood risk management scheme for the winter

The Environment Agency has taken the decision to temporarily pause construction of phase 1 of the Carlisle flood risk management scheme during the winter months.