

Environment Secretary Theresa Villiers visits Whaley Bridge

Environment Secretary Theresa Villiers visited Whaley Bridge where she met with emergency response teams working to fix a breach at Toddbrook Reservoir.

Letter to The Times from Emma Howard Boyd, Chair of Environment Agency

Response from the Chair to The Times' article "Filthy Business", 3 August 2019.

£25m Flood Risk Management Scheme for Carlisle gets underway

The project will better protect more than 1,600 homes and businesses in Carlisle, Cumbria.

Major campaign launched to encourage the nation to 'Love Water'

The British public are being asked to help the country protect water resources for future generations.

Be aware of safety warning signs when swimming near water structures this summer

Weirs, currents, and underwater structures all pose hazards, warns the Environment Agency