

Major campaign launched to encourage the nation to 'Love Water'

The British public are being asked to help the country protect water resources for future generations.

Be aware of safety warning signs when swimming near water structures this summer

Weirs, currents, and underwater structures all pose hazards, warns the Environment Agency

National Drought Group – EA Executive Director's statement

The NDG met on Thursday 25 July, chaired by Harvey Bradshaw, Executive Director of the Environment Agency.

Drones to detect illegal water abstractions

Drones will be used for the first time this summer to gather information about illegal abstraction in East Anglia's fenland areas.

£2.9 million extra funding to boost action on making homes more resilient to floods

Extra funding will support three projects to increase flood resilience