

Press release: Cockwells Nursery landowner allowed waste hoard which caught fire

Waste wood kept coming into a site in Devon, but never left and cost the landowner dearly when he was left to clear 10,000 tonnes.

---

News story: National Drought Group – Chairman’s Statement: 19 November

The Environment Agency host the National Drought Group (NDG) which brings together stakeholders to coordinate action to maintain protect the environment.

---

Press release: Leatherhead van destroyed after link to waste crime

Vehicle seen in Surrey town part of criminal probe

---

Press release: Keep an eye out for floating pennywort this winter

We’re asking river-users to report any new outbreaks of the invasive plant

---

Press release: Tonbridge Hildenborough residents invited to flood scheme events

The Environment Agency is inviting local residents, land owners and stakeholders to discuss plans for its scheme to better protect properties from flooding.