

Environment Agency rescues stranded fish during dry weather

Officers have been at sites along the Rivers Teme and Redlake following reports of low water levels and fish being stranded in pools.

2,000 properties in York now better protected with Foss Barrier upgrade and new flood defences

A £38 million Environment Agency scheme to upgrade the Foss Barrier in York has been officially opened.

New website launched to capture Severn Valley flood data

The Environment Agency has launched a new crowd reporter website to enable Severn Valley residents to share details of flooding in their communities.

Fungal infection likely cause of Northumberland fish deaths

Environment Agency experts investigating reports of fish deaths in a Northumberland river believe a natural fungal infection to be the cause.

Burton-upon-Trent flood defence work completes £30 million investment

The Environment Agency has completed additional flood defence work in Burton-upon-Trent, Staffordshire, to alleviate issues around the A38 at Branston.