

New tool to drive restoration of historic native oyster reefs

A new tool to help increase the native oyster population around the English coast has been launched, the Environment Agency announced today.

Companies hit with fines after sewage kills thousands of fish

Third conviction for Anglian Water in 2022, with civil engineers also guilty over river pollution.

Environment Agency sets out roadmap for more flood and climate-resilient nation

The FCERM Strategy Roadmap builds on existing progress and sets out how we can be better prepared for the unavoidable impacts of climate change.

When the levee breaks: climate change and the limits of flood protection

Speech by Sir James Bevan, Chief Executive, Environment Agency, 7 June, Flood & Coast Conference 2022, Telford

Celebrate World Ocean Day with local school children

Over 100 Hampshire school children have been invited to a 'kids' conference' at Portsmouth Historic Dockyard to mark World Ocean Day on Wednesday 8 June.