

Anglian Water fined £300,000 after pollution killed 5,000 fish

Pollution from a water pumping station caused the death of over 5,000 fish in an Essex river.

Environment Agency prosecutes Worcestershire farm company for polluting local watercourse

Company fined £120,000 plus costs of £28,125.19.

Tamar salmon tagged to provide vital data on health of fish stocks

The Environment Agency has completed the mammoth task of tagging more than 4,000 juvenile salmon smolts (juveniles) before they leave the River Tamar and head out to sea.

50 projects receive up to £100,000 each to boost investment in nature

Projects include rewetting lowland peat to grow plant fibre material to use as padding for clothes.

Lincolnshire man fined £21,000 for storing waste illegally

Two-year fly-tip racket catches up with pensioner