

Rod licence income benefits fisheries in Wessex

The funding has helped to enhance fisheries, boost fish stocks and make improvements for anglers, angling facilities and the environment.

Environment Agency launches consultation on facility in Horsham

The Environment Agency issues a permit variation to add mechanical sorting and an energy recovery facility to an existing site in Horsham.

Have your say on the future of sea net fishing

People are asked to share their views in a month-long Environment Agency consultation about protecting salmon and sea trout in Yorkshire and the North East

'Wonder Weevil' released in fight against invasive floating pennywort

Biocontrol released to protect British waterways against invasive non-native plant

Bathing water season begins in Devon and Cornwall

The Environment Agency is monitoring 149 bathing water sites across Devon and Cornwall until 30 September.