

Anglian Water could and should have reacted quicker to pollution

Dozens of fish killed in Cambridgeshire incident.

Cambridgeshire man fined £5,000 after burning toxic waste at home

A man has been fined over £5,000 after he burnt waste illegally for months on end at his Cambridgeshire home.

Improving fish and eel passage on the Bristol Frome

The Environment Agency has begun work to make it easier for fish and eels to swim up and down the River Frome in Yate, north Bristol.

Illegal waste operator and landowner prosecuted

The Environment Agency has successfully prosecuted an illegal waste operator who used land near in Newark, Nottinghamshire, to burn waste in 2018.

Norfolk company fined £17,000 for work that harmed water voles

A Norfolk company has been fined after it was found to have harmed the habitat of water voles, a protected species.