

Refurbished pumping station makes Doncaster more resilient to climate change

A newly refurbished pumping station at Bentley, Doncaster, which provides greater protection to 1,699 homes and businesses, has been officially opened.

---

Home improvements to better protect Allesley homes from flooding

The Environment Agency has started work to install property flood resilience measures to more than 30 homes in Allesley, Coventry.

---

Judith Batchelar announced as new Deputy Chair of the Environment Agency

The Environment Secretary has appointed Judith Batchelar as Deputy Chair of the Environment Agency.

---

Communities to trial innovative ways of adapting to coastal erosion

£36 million Coastal Transition Accelerator Programme will be used to help deliver innovative adaptation projects in North Norfolk and East Riding of Yorkshire

---

West Bromwich anglers caught fishing illegally in the dark

A spot of night-time fishing and removing fish and eels – a protected species – from the River Avon in Pershore, Worcestershire has cost two men £469 each.