

Work to reduce flood risk in Bishopthorpe now complete

The Environment Agency has completed work on a £3.4m project in the village of Bishopthorpe in York, better protecting 198 properties from the risk of flooding.

Agencies work together in day of action in Newcastle-under-Lyme

Environment Agency works with partners to target hauliers moving waste in Staffordshire.

Agencies work together in day of action in Newcastle-under-Lyme

Environment Agency works with partners to target hauliers moving waste in Staffordshire.

Close season for coarse fishing gets underway for 2022

The Environment Agency is reminding anglers that the close season for coarse fishing comes into effect today (Tuesday 15 March) and runs until 15 June inclusive.

New byelaws on the River Wye to help improve at-risk salmon stocks

The Environment Agency has renewed restrictions on salmon fishing on the River Wye in England in response to the decline in migratory salmon stocks.