

2 boat owners pay for failing to register their vessels

2 boaters have been ordered to pay a combined total of more than £2,600 for not registering their vessels.

Natural Flood Management work underway in Northumberland village

Work to install natural features to better protect residents in Acomb, Northumberland from flooding is underway.

Natural Flood Management work underway in Northumberland village

Work to install natural features to better protect residents in Acomb, Northumberland from flooding is underway.

East Midlands builder put environment at risk

£5,000 penalty for company and director.

Discharge of raw sewage lands firm in hot water

Yorkshire Water has been fined £233,000 and ordered to pay £18,766.06 costs and £170 Victim Surcharge after it admitted to being responsible for a sewage leak that led to the deaths of hundreds of fish in Tong Beck, near Bra...