

Work underway to repair damaged flood defence in Lowdham

A major project is underway by the Environment Agency to repair a flood wall in Lowdham, Nottinghamshire, to protect homes and businesses from the devastating impacts of flooding.

A Christmas stocking gives West Country fish numbers a boost

Thousands of fish have found new homes just in time for Christmas thanks to the Environment Agency's annual restocking programme.

New wetland habitats created in Norfolk

Wildlife is set to thrive after a river habitat restoration project was completed along the River Yare near Earlham.

More than 1,000 trees to be planted in Suffolk

The Environment Agency has planted over 600 trees in Suffolk so far this year with hundreds more planned this winter.

Company director fined £1,272 for abandoning Shropshire waste site

The Environment Agency has prosecuted a director of a waste company in Shropshire who abandoned a site full of waste without notifying the regulating authority.