

Malmesbury man burned rubbish and polluted neighbours

Peter Outlaw, 36, has been banned from dealing in most forms of waste and ordered to pay more than £5,000 for illegally storing and burning mixed waste.

Leominster upgraded flood defences ready to protect hundreds

The Environment Agency has completed work on the Leominster flood risk management scheme which will help to protect hundreds of homes from the devastating impact of flooding.

Exmouth tidal defence test a great success

The Environment Agency was joined by East Devon District Council and local volunteers to test the procedure for closing the flood gates.

Brothers sentenced over vehicles stored at illegal waste site

Rickman brothers failed to remove end of life vehicles from scrap yard operating without a permit.

EA habitat creation and flood scheme leading the way on new 'Global Standard' for nature-based solutions

Medmerry managed realignment project successfully pilots the IUCN's new Global Standard for Nature-based Solutions