

Bonfires are not an excuse to burn household rubbish

Only clean, non-commercial waste should be burned like paper, untreated wood and cardboard.

Environment Agency Enforcement Undertaking benefits coalfield charity by £30,000

Land Trust charity benefits by £30,000 to improve environment.

Flooding risk continues into the weekend

Flood warnings and alerts are in place in large parts of the north, southwest and southern England

Consultation on draft River Basin & Flood Risk Management Plans opens

Businesses, charities, local authorities and general public among those encouraged to have their say on draft plans to improve England's rivers and for managing flood risks

Environment Agency Board Member appointments

Environment Secretary reappoints Non-Executive Directors to the Environment Agency.