

Electric vehicles deployed on Hebden Bridge Flood Alleviation Scheme

The Environment Agency and BAM Nuttall have introduced electric vehicles to carry out early flood defence work in Hebden Bridge and the wider Calder Valley, as part of the project's ambition to cut carbon emissions.

Project launched to tackle greenwashing in food and drink sectors

The Environment Agency has launched a project to standardise metrics for environmental performance of food and drink sector.

731 fishing licences checked last month across East Anglia

A month-long enforcement campaign saw more than 700 anglers have their fishing licences checked along East Anglian riverbanks.

North East fire risk waste site closed down

The Environment Agency has blocked access to land in Birtley to reduce the serious risks of illegal waste storage to the environment and local community.

Teesside project secures investment to boost Net Zero ambitions

An Environment Agency partnership project has secured funding to boost UK Freeport Net Zero ambitions.