

Broadland flood alleviation project reaches 20 year landmark

Unique scheme to improve and maintain 240km of flood defences in the Norfolk Broads, one of Europe's most important wetland areas

Work starts on River Tyne eel pass and fish counter improvements

The Environment Agency is working with Northumbrian Water to open up the River Tyne to migrating eels, as well as carrying out a fish counter refurbishment.

Harrow man fined for dumping waste illegally in Edmonton

Christopher Stokes prosecuted under Operation Angola

Failure to move Thames houseboat lands owner in court

House boat owner given criminal conviction and £5,000 costs after failing to remove boat from public moorings following warnings

Environment Agency weeds out waste villains

Swift action by Environment Agency officers has led to the closure and clearance of an illegal waste site at Parnell Street, Houghton-le-Spring.