

New consultation for Norfolk habitat restoration project

A consultation proposal to grant a permit for temporary fish barriers at the entrance to Hoveton Great Broad, Norfolk, is being launched today.

Pioneering North East project uses nature to reduce flood risk

The £2.1m government-funded Weardale Natural Flood Management scheme is led by the Environment Agency and is using nature based solutions to reduce flood risk.

Appeal for local knowledge to achieve tree planting ambitions in York

The Environment Agency is appealing for help from York residents to decide where new trees should be planted as part of the city's flood defence scheme.

Canvey Island southern shoreline revetment project

Environment Agency to renew flood defence revetment with improvements to the seafront and shoreline.

Illegal fishing clampdown in Lincolnshire

16 anglers were served notices for fishing offences in Lincolnshire during a multi-agency clampdown on illegal fishing.