

Press release: UK secures markets access to Japan for exports of poultry meat

UK poultry can now be served on Japanese tables with industry estimates predicting this will boost the industry by up to £65 million over five years.

Anglers return to river banks as coarse fishing season starts today

608 Operation CLAMPDOWN close season patrols carried out with 214 offences reported.

Guidance: Import or move live animals, germinal products, animal by-products and high risk food and feed not of animal origin

Find out how to import or move live animals, including equines, germinal products, animal by-products and high risk food and feed not of animal origin from the EU and Northern Ireland to Great Britain.

Calculate your agricultural worker holiday entitlement

Work out how much statutory holiday leave you're entitled to as an agricultural worker

Rivers in the North East get fish stocks boost

The Environment Agency has released thousands of young grayling into the region's rivers to give stocks a boost and offer more opportunities for anglers.